THE CAMPBELLS ARE COMING.—This cel. ebrated company, under the management of Messrs. W. F. Durant and W. Hayward, are to give one of their inimitable peformunces at Lappin's Hall, on Friday evening of this week.. They performed at Albany Hall, in Milwaukee, during the state fair, and of their entertainment it says: "Saturday the Campbell Minstrels performed to a full house, and elicited unbounded applause. This company is composed of the very best musical talent. Hayward is one of those rare tenor singers, whose delicate tones invest a ballad with new pathos. His voice to be appreciated must be heard. We lay claim to some taste in vocal matters, and we say, that for exquisite feeling and brilliancy of execution, there are few ballud singers equal to Hayward. Mr. E. J. Melville, also displayed a musical knowledge and cultivated taste in the songs he rendered, very seldom seen in negro minstrelay."

KNITING WORK,—A. Web of Many Textures, wrought by Ruth Partington, (B. P. Shillaber,) Hoston, Brown, Taggart & Chaso. Moselev & Brother have laid this volume on our table. In it are collected all the quaint sayings of Dame Partington which have been for a long time floating through the newspapers of the country. But those who suppose these are the only things the book contains have wholly mistaken its character. Many choice sentiments, and and many pleasant sketches are scattered through it, the humor of the good old lady only serving to diversify its pages. It is a very readable volume and will entertainingly occupy a leisure hour at any time.

We yesterday omitted to call alten tion to the advertisement of Miss Reynolds & Sheehan. We are assured they have a stock of goods well worthy the attention of the ladies of this city, and we are pleased to know that their efforts to please their customers are well rewarded. If their advertisement has not been already noticed, we desire to now call particular attention

MILITARY VISIT.-The first plateon of the Chicago cadets will atcompany the excursionists to Ushkosh to-day, and will prior to the dinner at the Hyatt House exhibit their peculiar drill (the Zonave) in front of the Hvatt House. The platoon will number thirty-one muskets and four non-commissioned officers; they will be accompanied by six of the junior class of cadets, and the commissioned officers of the company, making in all some forty-six men. They carry their champion colors with them. It is requested that the street in front of the house be cleared before their arrival there, and that our citizens avoid crowding into the street, in order to give the cadets an opportunity for their peculiar evolutions.

TERRIBLE CASUALITY.—We are in receipt dent, which occurred Thursday afternoon at the agricultural fair near Wellington, Lorain county. During the exhibition of horses in the ring, a kind of ampitheater, filled with people, broke down through the immense weight, carrying in the ruins hundreds of human beings, men and women. The scene that followed the crash beggars description:

for a moment made a warmer fire than any shrieks of the crushed beings were truly awful. Scores were injured more or less; but eight were seriously hurt. One young lady, inkle broken; one lady, leg broken; one lady, hip broken in a shocking manner company, in which an error in the name of two men legs broken, and a young married lady, wife of a physician, had her spine seriously injured. She is delirious. It is a mercy that numbers were not killed, and as it is, the affair has cast a gloom over the entire county .- Cleveland Ledger.

> Avalanches on the Move .- A mysteriously labelled caravan passed through town yesterday, all westward bound, except the horses; they were "hide-bound." The wagon, as is usually the case with those traveling for towards sunset, was well ballasted with second-hand furniture and "trundle-bed trash," and looked enough like a moving field of white clover to fool an old bumble bee. Upon the outside of the wagon cover was traced, evidently in huste and red chalk, the following cabalistic inscription: "ioA or cAucAs." We don't care which,-Weekly Pantagraph.

Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam. Meatrs. Hunt & Gardner-Gents: I wish to make snown to the public an article from which I have derived more benefit than from all other medicines which known to the public an accelerate the form of the public trived more benefit than from all other medicines which I ever used. I have been suffering from fever and ague and its effects for the last. Ever years, in which time I have scarcely enjoy ed a single day of good health, until I procured from your drug store a bottle of Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam. In a few days I found my self clear of ague and rapidly recovering in health. I have not felt a symptom since I commenced taking it (about three months,) although constantly exposed to cold and weather. To my friends and the public generally, suffering from this disease in any form, I would say, procure a bottle, and save health, constitution and money.

Yours, J. B. GROSCOST. Yours,

During the summer that has just passed away, thousands of sufferers from dysentery and diarrhesa have been relieved by the use of Hostetter's Bitters, a medicine which is evidently destined to maintain a permanent place in the public estimation. Billious diarrhesa is one of those diseases which buffes the skill of the physician. The medicine they administer to act upon the bowels never seem to reach the source of the evidently it was a propagate that the lift reaches it the WE have just received from New York and Beston ine bowels never seem to reach the source of the evil.—
The difficulty is to get a remedy that will reach all the digestive organs, and give them simultaneously a rush of vigor, to rid themselves of this disease. This problem is solved by the Bitters, which never fails to conquer the most stubborn cases. It is only fair to say, that during the season just closed, this medicine has achieved more cures than any other ever presented to the public, and Doller, Smith & Ch.—Gentlemen: In using Scoull's Stillingia and Sarsparille, I did so more from the persuasion of friends than from confidence in its merits in my own mind. I had been long in the lands of the ablest physicians without relief. After many years of painful sufferings, afflicted with scaley eruptions over my whole body, and many running sores under my cars, arms, and other places, and life seemed but a burder, I have the pleasure to inform you that I have recovered, and once more enjoy the blessings which this world affords. All this is the work of your Sarsparilla. I am satisfied that there could be no greater blessing conferred upon my fellow citizens than the administration of your Blood and Liver Syrup in sickness and disease. Please accept assurances of my high consideration, and blieve me your obliged and humble servant, JOHN B. LAWSON. Chicago, Illinols, April 10th, 1859. octidly 6.0.. See advertisement.

L. E. STONE. Cleanse Your Blood by Using Scovill's BLOOD SYRUP.

Cleanse Your Blood by using Scotill's Blood and Liver Syrup. The recipe is given to all physicians, that they may know what they are using. The combination of Saraparilla with Sullingla, &c., is well known to all medical men as the best compound to purify the blood ever used. It cares Scrotula in all its worst forms. All diseases of the skin it cares effectually—Syphilitic Swellings, Erysipelus, Scaid Head, halt likeum. Femalo complaints, Tumors, King's Evil, and all diseases arising from any imparity of the blood. Physicians will tall you to let alone all propristary or quack medicines, as they call them. Why for the simple reason that they are put up with printed directions and the mane and label is cepyrighted. Show them the formula of preparation, and in sine cases out of ten they will approve of it. There are testimonials from physicians whose prejudices are over-balanced by their good coare of the excellent virues of Scovill's Blood and Errer Syrup, and who are using it for their private practice.
